The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
 He leadeth me beside the still waters.
 He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
 for thou art with me: thy rod and
 thy staff they comfort me.
 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
 thou anointest my head with oil:
 my cup runneth over.
 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
 me all the days of my life:
 and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

MADLC
LEONARD M. DALY

1905 -- 1986

TWIND SISTER LILLIAN BANS
ELDON SISTER LUOR WOSTERSON

Leonard Daly was born in Massachusetts and learned all the qualities of perservance and hard work that are a part of that harsh and unforgiving climate. In the comfort and warmth of his Florida living room he would tell friends and amily of walking to school in wind so cold ~~thm~~ he and the other children could walk only a few steps facing the wind. Then they would have to turn around and back into the wind for few steps to give their front a chance to recover, before turning and walking forward again. But in Maryland and Virginia, when he lived in those temperate states with his family, he was always the first to be out when it began to snow. One of his sons fondest memories is a White Christmas season when Father and Son spent a cold snowy afternoon putting Christmas lights on the evergreen outside.

Early on he became involved with the Masonic order. The family has photographs of him as a teenager in DeMolay. As a young man he was a leader in the Golden Rule Lodge. In 1937 he was Master of the Lodge. The vows of secrecy he had taken as a young man in the Order remained with him for he never discussed his Masonic work beyond these few basic facts. Later in his life he preferred to spend his little spare time with his family rather than the Lodge. But he was always ready to help and encourage young men who were interested in the Order.

His sense of integrity and attention to detail earned respect and success in any field he entered. For eighteen years he worked in a banking house, where "all the men had roll top desks which allowed them to simply cover their desk when they went home." But of course his desk was always neat. Though he had no college education, he became very knowledgeable in Probate matters and was a valued adviser in such matters.

After the depression and service in World War II, he became an executive at Chestnut Farms dairy in Washington, D.C., and later a distributor for their products on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, Delaware, and Virginia. He approached ~~with~~ milk distribution with the dedication usually ascribed to postal letter carriers. Neither snowstorm in Washington nor hail and sleet on Maryland's Shore could be allowed to keep his trucks from delivering such a vital food product as milk.

During the 1950's the family also ran a farm in Central Virginia. To a young boy growing up on the farm it seems he could do anything. If he needed a platform on the back of the tractor to carry tools and helpers, he built one from oak planks and an old metal drum. When barns were needed he picked out Cedar trees growing tall and straight and cut them for the poles of the barn. For planking he ~~was~~ chose solid green oak planks and allowed them to season for several years behind the house. The barns should have lasted as long as any in his native New England. His son never had the heart to tell him that 25 years later they had all been burned by vandals.

He nurtured two children, a daughter~~xx~~ now deceased and a son who lives in South Brevard. There are five grandchildren, only one of whom could come today.

After retiring from a successful life in business, his Florida Cracker wife moved this rock-bound New Englander to her native state. Here he found that the idleness of retirement was contrary to his nature. At a time when most men are enjoying a well-earned retirement, he discovered that his uncompromising ~~his~~ craftsmanship ~~was~~ combined with an eye for color and form to give him perhaps the most rewarding career of his life as a picture framer here in Titusville. Many local people will remember him as the proprietor of the Artisque for the last several years. His passing leaves a void that can hardly ever be filled.

FROM TO EAST

A new season is upon us. A new season brings many things, but the most important for the welfare of your Lodge is opportunity. Opportunity is a gift.
It gives us a chance to improve ourselves in masonry and to support our Lodge morally, physically, and financially.

Golden Rule Lodge needs your support and that support starts with your attendance. Our season commences with the September Communication. Use this opportunity to invite a Brother Master Mason to your Lodge, we will all be the better for it.

COMFORT FOR THOSE WHO MOURN

So many people imagine that death cruelly separates us from our loved ones. Even pious people are led to believe this great and sad mistake. When our loved ones die, they do not leave us. They remain. They do not go to some dark and distant place. They simply begin their eternity. We do not see them because we are still in the darkness of the world. But their spiritual eyes, filled with the light of heaven, are always watching us as they wait for the day when we shall share their perfect joy. We are all born for heaven and one by one we end this life of tears to begin our life of love in endless happiness.

I have often reflected upon this beautiful truth and found it the greatest and surest comfort in time of mourning. A firm faith in the real and continual presence of our loved ones has brought the conviction and consolation that death has not destroyed them, nor carried them away. Rather it has given them life! A life with power to know fully and to love perfectly. With this new life and new power our loved ones are always present to us, knowing and loving us more than ever before.

The tears that dampen our eyes in times of mourning are tears of homesickness, tears of longing for our loved ones. But it is we who are away from home, not they. Death has been for them a doorway to an eternal home. And only because this heavenly home is invisible to our worldly eyes, we cannot see them so near us. Yet, they are with us, lovingly and tenderly waiting for the day when we, too, will enter the doorway of our eternal home. No, death is not a separation. It is a preparation for eternal union with those we love, in the peace and joy of heaven.

With love, Mary Margaret Ingalls Robinson*

Golden Years

They say that Love doesn't always last,
that hopes and dreams are a thing of the past.

But you are proof that Love grows strong,
and hopes and dreams are what carry us on.

The vows you spoke many years ago,
are renewed today with a love
that shows,
that God has been your guiding light,
in the life you share as man and wife.

So here's to you and the love you share,
to golden years that were filled with care.

To memories of times bad and good,
and to years to come,
may they all be good.

INSTRUCTIONS

To Members of the Organized Reserve Corps

1. ADDRESS.—Changes in permanent home address or temporary address will be reported on this form to the reserve military area, district, or unit in which the old permanent home address was reported. Permanent home address includes forwarding address—the address at which mail will eventually reach the individual concerned. A temporary address may be a home or business address at which mail will reach the individual more promptly. Changes in temporary address of 1 month or less need not be reported.

2. STATUS.—Reservist will submit a report on this form when he becomes or ceases to be a member on active duty or inactive duty of another military or naval force, or when he assumes or vacates any public office or any civil position under the Federal Government.

3. REGULAR ARMY PERSONNEL.—(a) Regular Army warrant officers and enlisted men who are commissioned in the Officers' Reserve Corps will report their military address as a "temporary address" and a civilian address as a "permanent home address."

(b) Regular Army warrant officers and enlisted men retired who hold commissions in the Officers' Reserve Corps and enlisted men retired and transferred to the Enlisted Reserve Corps will also report their retired status.

4. ABSENCE ABROAD.—Membership in the Organized Reserve Corps does not restrict travel or residence abroad. The reservist will, prior to his departure, report on this form stating date of his departure, foreign address, duration of absence, and purpose of travel or residence abroad including any occupation he expects to follow. Upon his return he will report fact and date of return stating his permanent home address.

5. ON ACTIVE DUTY.—Reservists on active duty are not required to submit this form, since no change of their permanent home address will be made on their records during a tour of active duty. However, immediately upon release from active duty any change of address should be reported on this form.

6. PREPARATION.—All entries except the signature should be typed or printed in plain letters. A check mark will be placed on the form in the spaces not used. The report will be dated and signed. Requests for information should not be made on this form. (Reservists will retain these instructions.)

17 January 1952

Dear Mr. Daly:

Plans have been completed for our orientation cruise from Pensacola on the dates of February 18, 19, and 20. I am looking forward with a great deal of pleasure to being with you on this trip. I had hoped to be able to pay all members of the cruise a visit before our departure---and may do it yet, if my duties allow time for it.

In order that you may know the members of the cruise from the Washington area, I am enclosing a list of those who have accepted to date. Also, I am enclosing a schedule of events at NAS, Pensacola.

We will depart from NARTU, NAS, Anacostia at 10:30 am, 18 February, in a Navy R5D, four engine airplane. We are scheduled to return by air to Anacostia, arriving at 2:30 pm on the 20th. In order that everyone can become acquainted before leaving, I am asking that all members of the cruise party meet at the Naval Air Reserve Training Unit Wardroom on the second deck of the administration building at 9:30 am, where coffee and doughnuts will be served.

A baggage allowance of forty (40) pounds per guest will be allowed. Only informal clothing is needed. The only time a coat and tie will be necessary is at the evening activities at the Commissioned Officers Mess on Monday and Tuesday nights. Since the weather at Pensacola at this time of year may be quite cool, I would suggest that you bring along a warm topcoat.

The Chief of Naval Air Reserve Training advises us that $30.00 will cover all expenses on the trip, including meals, lodging and incidentals. We request that this amount be available for collection by one of the group from all members of the cruise at the meeting in the Wardroom on Monday morning at 9:30 am, before we embark in the plane. Luncheon will be served on the plane enroute to Pensacola.

Please let me hear from you at LUDlow 4-2400, extension 340, if you have any questions regarding the cruise which are not answered here.

Sincerely yours

T. B. PAYNE

please turn your card, filled out fully to your supervisor.

Don't forget, persons under 21 years of age must have the signature of their parents or guardian. Let's all rally to this cause that is so vital to both our boys in the service . . . and to civilians here at home . . . and that reminds us that a donor pledge was turned in, fully filled out, but where it said "Group Affiliation" the donor had marked "measles" . . . and speaking of giving . . . what we need is the spirit of little Karen Dulcan, Alvin and Mina's three-year old. You probably saw the picture some weeks back at the time of the Boys' Club drive. When Pvt. Dave Wollett of the 8th Precinct was enrolling Mina as a club member at her home on Barnaby Street, N.W., Karen entered the room and offered her piggy bank. When Pvt. Wollett told Karen she ought to keep her savings, she cried so pitifully, he took the bank and found it held $2.50 and Karen went to bed happy because she too had done her bit . . . and the other day a customer left her wallet down at the Midway where one of our associates picked it up and immediately gave it to Jimmy Mathews. Jimmy forgot the name of the associate. He merely knew she was somebody he saw every day at the Midway. Back came the customer and was so grateful to get her wallet she insisted that Jimmy take $5 for the associate. Then he was in a spot until looking up he spied Ruth Penley of our Corset Department and realized it was she who had given him the wallet

. . . When the 12th District Credit and Collection Conference was held in New York City, February 10th, 11th and 12th, Ena Shepherd and Dorothy Conway of our Credit Department attended it as delegates. Mr. W. P. Norwood, Sr., attended as President of the Washington R.C.A. and Mr. Walter E. Reitz, Jr., our Executive Controller spoke at one session on "Merchandising of Credit" . . . and speaking of our Credit Department, Mary McCoy up there sends in this bit of wisdom: "Before you flare up at anyone's faults, take time to count ten . . . ten of your own." . . . And we found a saying of Helen Keller's we like. "I believe life is given us so that we may grow in love . . . and I believe God is in me as the sun is in the color and fragrance of a flower" . . . nice? . . . and speaking of flowers we've a couple of orchids this week to hand to Mildred Sutton up in Junior Miss Dresses, and to Kathryn Steele of the Venetian Blind Shop . . . the customer who called to say how nice Kathryn had been to her admitted that she (the customer) had been a pest . . . and we're pretty late telling you that Nellie Revelle is a Grandmother again. Winnie Mae's new little girl, Sharon Lee Purschwitz, made her debut January 31, weighing 8½ pounds and young Ronald Gordon is very proud of his little sister . . . and we've another orchid, this one for Milton Lewis, who is a driver for our bulk delivery. Milton found a wallet on the street, brought it to the New York Avenue Personnel Office who contacted the customer who called for it and was very grateful.

The Stork Favors N. Y. Avenue This Week!

Two new babies to announce out at our New York Avenue Service Building! John Hook, of the Garage, passed out cigars for Susan Mary, who arrived February 22nd, weighing 8 pounds, 14 ounces, and the very next day Bill Waugh, our Maintenance Engineer out there announced the arrival of 7 pound, 12 ounce Laura Louise . . . the first baby in their family. Congratulations!

Silver Spring Wins Annual Bowling Match

For the third time in that many years, Silver Spring has won the annual Washington's Birthday Bowling Match with the Washington Store, despite Jack Crowl's valiant efforts. Jack, of our Washington Store team, bowled the highest . . . a set of 388 with Bill Kirsch of Silver Spring coming in next with a set of 359 . . . and Bill Burras, formerly of the Silver Spring Display Department and Marjorie Sanders surprised a lot of folks by getting married without any fanfare . . . and the happy couple are now in New York on their honeymoon. Congratulations to both of you! . . . And we're happy to tell you that when Barbara Eigen left Silver Spring to come Downtown as Assistant Buyer of the Downstairs Store blouse department, Laura Sanders, who had been Head of Stock in Junior Misses was promoted to Barbara's former position as Section Manager in the Downstairs Store Silver Spring. Again congratulations!

Parkington Patter

The Second Floor is really making a name for itself in the baby-sitting world. Sarah Newsome, Better Coats and Suits, had a grand time taking care of a baby who was really howling about his mother's taste in coats.

Sig Bernheimer, Second Floor Division Manager and Arthur Rubinstein, Section Manager in Shoes, have been saving babies right and left from the escalator. They have a system. "Ruby" pushes the red stop button while Bernie rushes up the escalator after the child.

A couple weeks back, news came out about Parkington's first sign. We mentioned that two "6-foot shrimps" pulled a "just plain shrimp" down the aisle, but forgot to mention that Jack Bechtel, Furniture and Ray Reynolds, Men's Furnishings, pulled the boat with Bobbie Dick, Bedding, as "just plain Shrimp."

Does anyone come up from Manassas? It's practically impossible for Mary Reynolds to stay with us unless she can find a ride. Her extension is 3268.

Maybe this will help someone here at Parkington. Lillian Shockley, Ext. 3344, would like riders to and from McLean, and Betty Bevins, Ext. 3282, travels back and forth from Annandale and would like to share her car.

My Viewpoint . . .

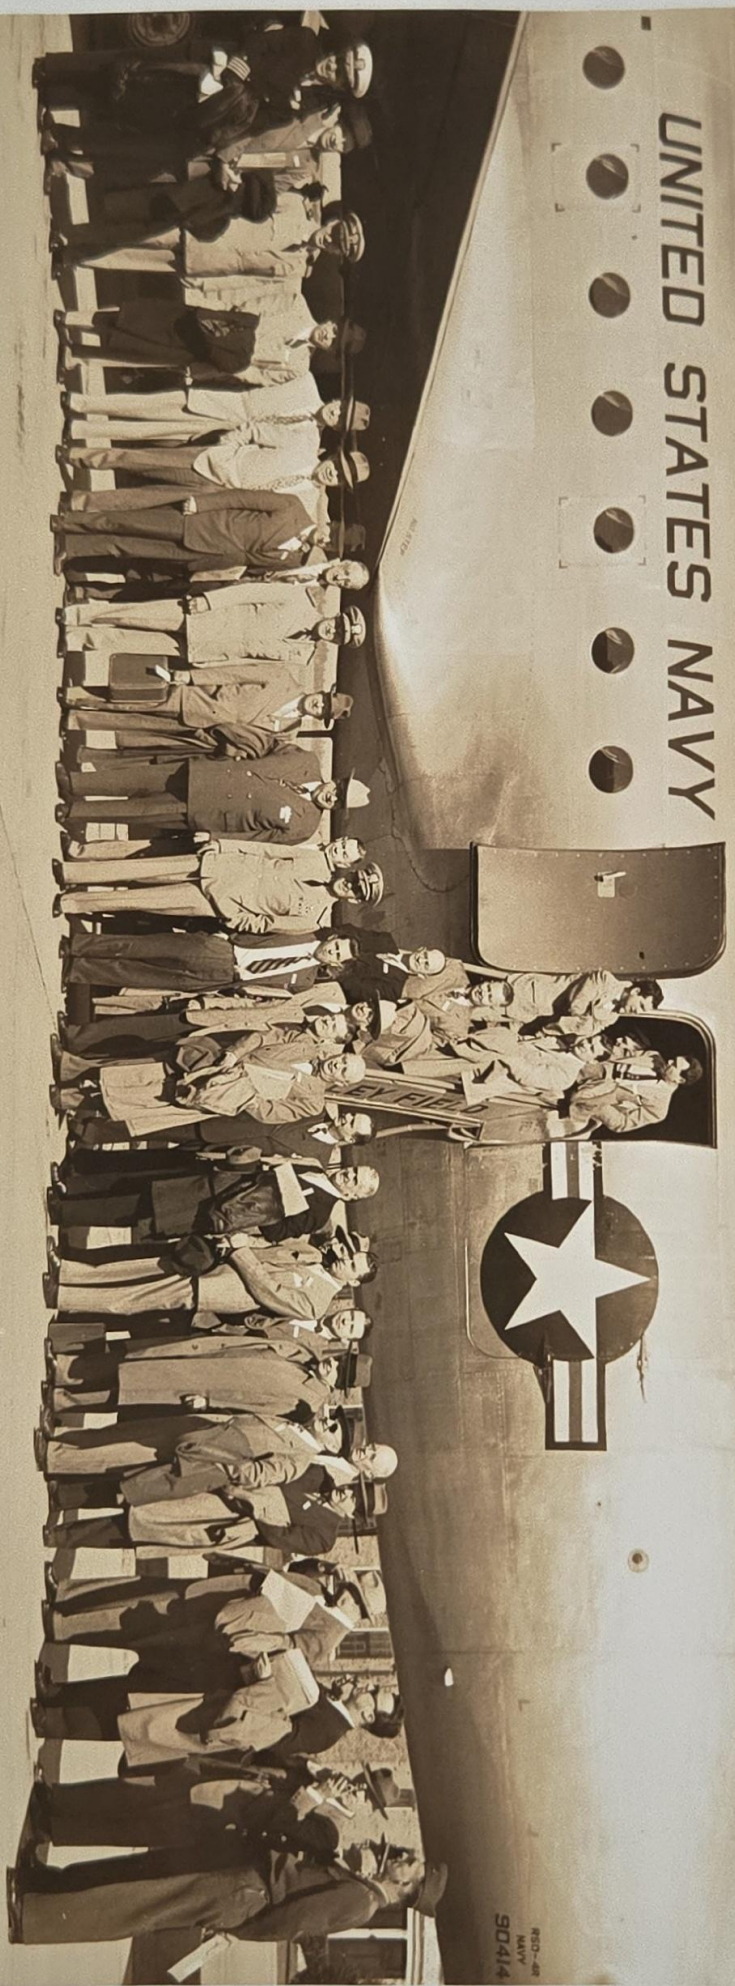

- Together with a number of other good citizens of Washington, I was invited to be the guest of Uncle Sam, on a three-day Orientation Cruise. And so, on the morning of February 18th, we were motored to the Naval Air Base at Anacostia where we were greeted by Capt. T. B. Payne, treated as kings and, after an informal get-together, over coffee and doughnuts, embarked on a Navy R5D four-engine airplane and were flown to Pensacola, Florida.
- On arrival at Saufley Field, we were met by VADM John Dale Price, RADM F. M. Hughes, and other officers, were assigned to rooms at BOQ and, after a short rest, boarded a bus for a tour of the station.
- We saw and learned about many interesting phases of Aviation Cadet Training. We witnessed the rescue, by helicopter, of a man in the water. A raft and rope were dropped from the air and he was pulled to safety, indicating how relief and rescue is afforded to those in distress at sea, on isolated islands or impenetrable forests. An ambulance was waiting on the field to speed the rescued man to the hospital.
- An old airplane was set on fire and the speed with which the flames were smothered and the aviator saved was an amazing exhibition of intensive training.
- This training is broad and varied. We watched a demonstration of how cadets are taught to increase their reading efficiency from several hundred words, or less, to as much as 1,500 a minute. Then, of course, a foundation in aeronautical subjects is essential and we were keenly interested in visiting a planetarium, with a facsimile of the solar system, used in the study of navigation. It may be of interest that it costs $60,000 to train one Navy flyer, and what training!
- The following day we boarded the Aircraft Carrier USS Monterey and were thrilled as we watched the cadets take off from the deck of the carrier for the first time, and make the return landing. It is said the deck looks no bigger than a penny match-box to these student aviators and I know now what it is to "sweat a boy" off a plane and back. Each cadet has to make this flight aloft and return landing six times before being sent to the Texas Air Base for further training.
- The Aircraft Carrier was most interesting. Space precludes more detail. I have never met a finer looking or more intelligent group of officers, cadets, or men anywhere. This particular station is doing a great job to keep America strong and our Democracy free.
- We were flown home a little tired but much better informed and very grateful for the many courtesies shown us.

Dear Leonard:

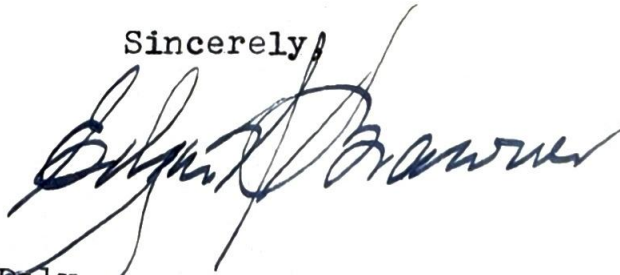

It is with real pleasure, I am authorized to extend to you an invitation to attend the 1952 National Dairy Executive Conference which is to be held at The Homestead, Hot Springs, Virginia, on March 23 to 26, inclusive.

There are a number of men invited to attend from Chestnut and it is expected most will group together and drive down to The Homestead Sunday morning, March 23, returning the next Wednesday evening. You will be advised of the detailed transportation arrangements as soon as completed. Because of the limited number of rooms available, it is necessary, as in the past, to assign two men to each double room and for this purpose you have been paired with Dave Brawner.

The President's Reception is scheduled for Sunday afternoon March 23, at five o'clock, and it has been requested that all be in the hotel and registered, in time to attend the Reception.

I do hope you can advise me promptly that you will be able to go for I believe this Conference will be of great benefit to all able to attend.

Sincerely,
