Notes.

Constantly met Don Carlos in Venice. Walked beside him & his fine large dog - & our gondola bumped into his at night, as we floated along the Grand Canal, & listened to the music. He was at 20 at Lido, & in San Marco Piazza.

The Linden has a leaf much like a poplar - only larger & greener. It has a small ball.

The Alsace Lorraine head dress, most striking - at Strasbourg.

The large bell in Cologne Cathedral, made out of 24 canons captured from the French.

The celebrated Toledo Jasper, looks like red marble.

At Toledo in the church of San Juan de los Reyes, we saw a crucifix with the Christ wearing a long red skirt, with fringe around the bottom, & real hair on his head.

On the top of the Sierrada, are many belle - all named. "San Miguel" is the largest, & only original one.

The Coral - a great court, where 1000 poor people live.

Every town in Spain has its own time. Trains by Madrid time. Terribly mixed.

Queer felt shoes for walking on the floor at Charlottenburg.

Hour glass at Garrison Church - Potsdam.

Iron gates at Sans. Souci the same that we saw at the World's Fair - Chicago.

At Genoa occupied the house or palace once owned by Victorina's family.

Wonderful roof gardens at Genoa.

St. Peter on site of Nero's Circus.

The present Pope, Leo XIII to be buried in St. John the Lateran.

"Questo" The church just the size of one pillar in St. Peter's. Service held up high - out of sight - the balcony doors open.

"Questo" The Church of St. Maria in Ara-coeli. The small pictures around the arch ~~and the altar~~ ^{men falling} from the tops of houses - from trees - being trampled under horses feet & run over by wagons, & every horrible death imaginable.

(Venice)

"Questo" Redentore, where the monks were at service in the church. We went thro' a cold vaulted passage, lined with cells, into the sacristy - where we saw three fine Madonna's, & a row of Capuchin monks' heads, with hair & whiskers, under glass cases. Statues in church made of board - very good effect.
